The Old Melodrama.

Above the howling of the wolves the heroine's shrill voice rang over the pastboard mountains. "Give me those papers," she screamed, "or I shall tear out my hair!" Do you hear, Roycroft Rollington? The heavy villain displayed his white teeth and rolled another cigarette. "Yes, Julia Livingstone, I hear very distinctly," he replied, in measured tones; "but do be careful, little girl. You know the last time you bought your hair they said they were afraid they couldn't match it any more." Crushed to earth, the poor heroine threw herself to the mercy of the mechanical wolves.

Comparing Notes.

"My teacher's name is Brown," said the first little girl. "My teacher's name," replied the other little girl, "is Davis, but I don't know what color it is."

Chat.

A gentleman once remarked to Henry, Prince of Prussia, that one rarely found genius, wit, memory and judgment united in the same person. "Surely, there is nothing astonishing in this," replied the prince. "Genius takes its daring flight toward heaven—he is the eagle. Wit moves along by fits and starts—he is the grasshopper. Memory marches backward—he is the crab. Judgment drags along slowly—he is the tortoise. How can you expect all these animals to act in unison?"

AS THE BOY UNDERSTOOD.

Probably to His Mind Conflict of Authority Was Vital.

In one of the Atlanta Sunday schools recently the lesson for the day had to do with Mammon and the corrupting influences of great riches.

Toward the close of the exercises, says Harper's Magazine, the superintendent called upon the infant class to repeat the golden text, which had special reference to man's inability to serve his Creator and the money god at one and the same time. The class failed to respond as it should, when the superintendent, noticing his own young hopeful in the ranks, who had that very morning been drilled thoroughly on the text, called to him. The response was immediate, though a slight departure from the original, for in a voice that was distinctly heard in all parts of the room there came the following modification:

"Ye cannot serve God and mamma!"

SETTING THE BRIDE AT EASE.

"Widder's" Sympathy Went Out to Fellow Passenger.

A couple recently married had just entered the train that was to bear them to the mountains on their honeymoon, when they became aware of the close scrutiny of them by a female passenger, who had evidently "spotted" a bride and groom. The young wife, on opening her handbag, let fall some rice on the floor, and the woman smiled. The other passengers regarded the couple with interest. Seeing that the bride was every moment becoming more flushed and uncomfortable by reason of their scrutiny, the woman in the goodness of her heart, leaned across the carriage.

"Never mind, my dear!" she said. "I'm a widder now, but by this time next week I'll be in the same fix myself!"

NO RELIEF FROM ECZEMA

For Over Two Years—Patent Medicines, Quack Cures and Doctors Fail—Cuticura Succeeds.

"I was very badly afflicted with eczema for more than two years. The parts affected were my limbs below the knees. I tried all the physicians in the town and some in the surrounding towns, and I also tried all the patent remedies that I heard of, besides all the cures advised by old women and quacks, and found no relief whatever until I commenced using the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent. In the Cuticura Remedies I found immediate relief, and was soon sound and well. C. V. Beltz, Tippecanoe, Ind., Nov. 15, '05."

Fell Into Bad Company.

A canny Scot was brought before a London magistrate on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. "What have you to say for yourself, sir?" demanded the magistrate. "You look like a respectable man, and ought to be ashamed to stand there."

"I am verra sorry, sir, but I cam' up in bad company fra Glasgow," humbly replied the prisoner.

"What sort of company?"

"A lot of teetotalers!" was the startling response.

"Do you mean to say teetotalers are bad company?" thundered the magistrate. "I think they are the best of company for such as you."

"Beggin' yer pardon, sir," answered the prisoner, "ye're wrong; for I had a bottle of whisky an' I had to drink it all myself!"

Evidently Frank Has a Cinch.

The following letter was picked up in the streets of Longmont the other day, says the San Francisco Call:

"My Darling Frank: I swallowed the postage stamp that was on your last letter, because I knew that your lips had touched it, and oh, Frank, I felt so happy afterward. Put two stamps on your next letter."

High-Priced Meat

may be a

Blessing

If it gives one the chance to know the tremendous value of a complete change of diet.

Try this for breakfast:

A Little Fruit

A Dish of Grape-Nuts and Cream

A Soft-Baked Egg

Some Nice, Crisp Toast

Cup of Well-made

Portum Food Coffee

That's all, and you feel comfortable and well-fed until lunch.

THEN REPEAT.

And at night have a liberal meat and vegetable dinner, with a Grape-Nuts pudding for dessert.

Such a diet will make a change in your health and strength worth trial.

TRUE SECRET OF YOUTH.

It Is Well Within the Power of All to Remain Young.

Do you say every morning when you get up, "I am still young?" It will be worth while to do it, says Charles Battell Loomis in Smith's Magazine. The framework that holds a man's clothes in place is not the real man. The real man is that something which no one has ever been able to see or to put his hand upon—that something which lives forever. Our framework does age; there's no doubt of it. But we—our spirits—are immortal, and for us to age is for us to commit an unpardonable folly.

Does immortality age? The stars are to all intents and purposes immortal, but have you noticed any perceptible diminution of their brilliance since, well, since we became the greatest nation that the sun ever shone upon?

Don't look at your face in a glass and ask yourself, "am I getting old?" Look at your spirit in the glass of your friend's treatment of you and try to discover whether it is getting old. And if it is—drop ten years.

It will not be so hard as it seems. Think young thoughts. Keep your mind wide open to the reception of new ideas. Don't, when you get to be 40, say to yourself, "I'm one of the 'has-beens.'" Only 40 years old! Why, you ought to be a colt at 40. For all I know, I have 60 years before me. And if a man has 60 years to come, what is the use of considering 40 odd that have gone?

To be sure, there are sky-rockets of 25 and 30 that rise brilliantly, but they may be spent sticks in a few years. Let your flame of life burn steadily, and replenish it from time to time with young thoughts, and you'll be as young at 50 or 60 as you were at 40 or 30 or 20—no, you were old at 20; older than you'll ever be again.

If disease spares you, youth lies in your own hands.

What is the secret? Kindly thoughts, good cheer, and the feeling that you have not robbed another man in getting what you need. Of course, if you have failed to see that other people have rights, and have simply played the fascinating but wicked game of "grab," you'll grow old so fast that people will forget that you were ever young.

They say a woman is as old as she looks, but a man is as old as he feels. Make it your pleasure to feel as young as you can, and induce your wife to do the same—for I don't believe the ungallant first clause of the aphorism—and you'll get so young that your son will call you "my boy," and you'll call him "old chap."

And a nation of "young men" is unconquerable.

Farm Work for Women.

For various reasons, one of which is that farmers' wives and daughters have all the work they can do in the house at harvest time, it is not likely that women will ever do much outside farm labor except in emergency, says the Indianapolis Star. At the same time it must be said that the old arguments against it will not hold. It is no heavier than work at the wash tub or the ironing board, and is far more healthful than bending over the sewing machine day in and day out. Yet these occupations are regarded as strictly feminine and no protest is ever raised against them save by women themselves now and then. The exertion is no greater than is called for by gardening, which is constantly being recommended to women by physicians as a means of building up their health; nor does it call for greater physical exertion than golf, or make them more weatherbeaten. Though women are not likely to engage in such work extensively it is not worth while to lift the hands in horror at the thought of their doing so.

Keep Cool About Crop Shortages.

Nature has the habit of striking averages. Bumper crops every year would mean overproduction, which, like overpopulation, nature abhors and regulates in its own time and way. It would be false optimism not to recognize the fact that this is one of the years chosen to offset and average down such fat seasons as that of 1906, when the products of the soil glutted every market and choked every avenue of transportation. But there is another error to be avoided. Heed should not be given to the gambling Jeremiahs, who preach famine, destitution and agricultural, financial and industrial distress. The one true conclusion to be drawn from the reports of farming conditions is that crops will be sufficient, though not abundant, and the season one neither of the best nor worst.

His Economics.

"What has wealth done for you?" inquired the cynical person.

"Well," answered Mr. Dustin Stax, "it has given me certain advantages. By owning a considerable amount of good dividend-paying stock I have been enabled to save most of my salary as a director."

What He Meant.

"That speech of yours was a classic," said the admiring friend.

"Your criticism," replied Senator Sorghum, "is kindly intended, but discouraging. The formal expression of a public opinion is something like the composition of music."

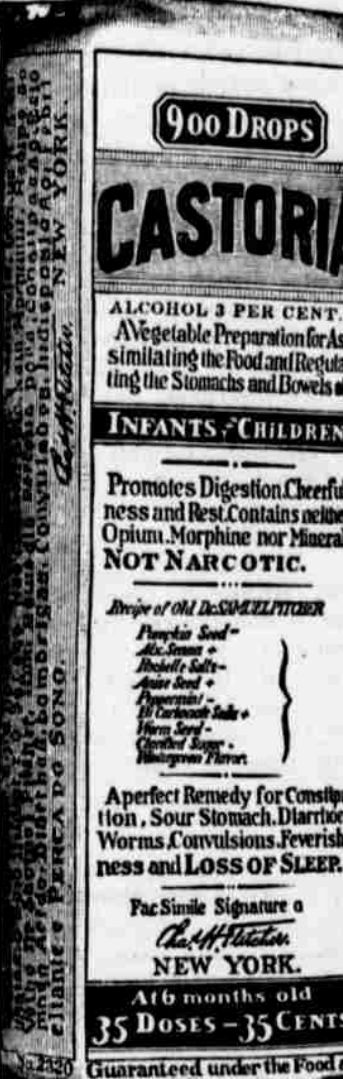

"You mean it should fall soothingly on the ear?"

"No; you want to keep away from the classical and get something that will hit the popular taste."

What is Castoria.

CASTORIA is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. F. Gerald Blattner, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "Your Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, always obtaining the desired results."

Dr. Gustave A. Eisenkraeber, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "I have used your Castoria repeatedly in my practice with good results, and can recommend it as an excellent, mild and harmless remedy for children."

Dr. E. J. Dennis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used and prescribed your Castoria in my sanitarium and outside practice for a number of years and find it to be an excellent remedy for children."

Dr. S. A. Buchanan, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

Dr. J. E. Simpson, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."

Dr. R. E. Eskildson, of Omaha, Neb., says: "I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. Is not its age, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

Dr. Edwin F. Pardee, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."

At a country dance in a southern town, when the fiddlers had resigned their bows and taken their places on the platform, the floor manager rose.

"Got yo' partners for a cotillion!" he shouted, imperiously.

"All you ladies an' gemmen take wears shoes an' stockings take yo' places in de middle ob de room. All you ladies an' gemmen take wears shoes an' stockings take yo' places immedjly behin' dem. An' yo' bare-footed crowd jist jig it roun' in de corners."—Youth's Companion.

An Early Discovery.

"Your epigrams and adages show great wisdom," said the dependent.

"Yes," answered Marcus Aurelius. "I can't deny that I regard them as something very wise indeed. There is nothing like them for popularizing an administration."
